Man Electrocuted At DuPont Plant

Jerry C. Green, 29, Columbus, father of four children, was electrocuted at 2 p. m. yesterday while working on an air conditioning unit at the DuPont plant two miles south of here.

Investigation showed that Green, an employee of the Julian Speer Co. of Columbus, attempted to connect the air compressor unit on which he had been working since yesterday morning, to electric wires. The unit was part of a dual conditioner which was undergoing repair.

DuPont officials and Dep'ty Sheriff Charles Felkey said Green, an air conditioning mechanic, was waiting for a DuPont electrician to connect the unit. The accident happened when he apparently decided to make the hook up himself, they added.

Officials said Green sent an as-

Senate GOP Heading for New Squabble

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republicans appeared heading today toward another liberal vs. conservative battle — this time over chairmanship of their Senatorial Campaign Committee.

Reports circulated among GOP members that Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, chairman of the party conference, was balked at the proposed appointment of Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona as head of the group charged with directing efforts to elect GOP senators in 1960.

Some of his colleagues said Saltonstall had indicated he believed the selection of Goldwater for this post would be regarded as a slap at organized labor and as a salute to the party's conservatives.

Goldwater was re-elected in November in a contest in which he attacked what he said was organized labor's use of union dues collected under compulsion for political purposes. Goldwater also has been an advocate of right-to-work laws fought by unions.

Goldwater had headed the Campaign Committee once before. Saltonstall, who has the primary power of appointment, said he has not made up his mind about the Campaign Committee chairmanship. His recommendation is subject to ratification by the 34 Republican senators when they meet early next week.

Ohio Birth Rate Dips

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's birth rate dropped about 2½ percent in 1958. Dr. Ralph E. Dworkin, Ohio health director, said today. He said the business recession probably was responsible.

DiSalle Studies Last-Minute GOP Job Moves

Top Republicans Get Lucrative Posts in 11th Hour Maneuvers

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Democratic Gov. elect Michael V. DiSalle intends to look into what he says appear to be last-minute attempts to save lucrative jobs for two top Republicans in the current state administration.

The two are Senate Clerk Tom Bateman and former Registrar of Motor Vehicles George Braden.

Bateman was named director of the Legislative Reference Bureau at $12,000 a year—the same salary he received as senate clerk.

The appointment was made by the vote of outgoing Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill, former House Clerk Carl Guess and Bateman himself, before the Democrats took over control of the legislature. His salary is almost double that of his predecessor.

Now, both Senate and House clerks are Democratic, and the vote of either with DiSalle could make Bateman jobless.

Braden has been named to the $10,320 post of executive assistant in the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction.

Braden, while working for Dr. Robert A. Haines, department director and a holdover from the O'Neill Cabinet, will draw $480 more than he received as motor vehicles registrar.

"I most certainly intend to look into this too," DiSalle commented Thursday. "Dr. Haines told me nothing of this when we conferred Monday."

The incoming governor said earlier that he planned no "riper legislation" to get rid of O'Neill holdovers who were qualified for their jobs. But he added he would not tolerate loading up their departments with out-of-work Republicans.

DiSalle, who will be inaugurated Monday, also said that one of his first acts as governor will be to study Ohio's liquor control system. He referred particularly to the operation of so-called one-man clubs which hold private-club permits.

He said he considers a pay raise for the 40,000 rank-and-file state workers one of the "needs" his administration will meet.

He did not say how much of a pay raise he might propose or when it would be introduced in the Legislature.

Of the liquor question, DiSalle commented that he would be in favor of having higher caliber enforcement agents "even if it means having fewer of them."

In the same vein, he added: "We are going to make sure that persons holding liquor permits run decent, respectable places of business. There will be no room for any other kind."

He said he will discuss the liquor department's operations with the new director, Richard C. Crouch of Dayton, to determine a number of other policy decisions.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union probably will soon announce the successful return of a human passenger from a rocket flight, a report issued by the House Space Committee has predicted.

On the United States side of the space timetable, a missile expert says four unmanned interplanetary shots are planned this year.

The Rand Corp., which does space research for the Air Force, made the forecast about the Soviet flight. A broad study Rand completed for the House committee was made public Thursday night.

In issuing the 252-page document as a "space handbook," the committee under House Majority Leader John McCormack (D-Mass) cited it as the most comprehensive work of its kind for laymen.

The report said American intercontinental ballistic missile rockets can be adapted to attempt manned flight probably within less than five years. It added the Soviets will have as much or greater rocket capability in this period.

The Rand study also made these points:

Launchings of hundreds of satellites — scientific, military and perhaps even commercial — by the early 1960s will so overburden present tracking and computing systems that new systems must be found quickly.

Seeing-eye satellites will have to be very large to carry necessary equipment to spot objects on earth.

Glide rockets, which shoot up and then glide back to earth, promise more efficiency than ballistic missiles.

In the frigid air moving southward across the Great Lakes region, snow flurries continued from the lakes into interior sections of the Northeast. Northerly winds spread light snow into the northern Ohio Valley.

Grieving GI Joins His Poor Butterfly

WYNDANCH, N.Y. (AP) — "I hope God will see fit to let me see Mickey again. I loved her so much I know I could never be happy without her."

The note lay on the car seat beside the body of Lawrence Baker, a 27-year-old Air Force sergeant. There, too, was a picture of his Japanese bride, Midori — or Mickey as he called her.

They met and fell in love three years ago while Baker was stationed in Japan. There they were married also. Happily they looked forward to settling down in the United States.

Six weeks ago the sergeant was transferred back to this country and his bride came with him. She was welcomed at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker, and the couple stayed there while seeking a home of their own.

But after three weeks Mickey found herself ill. On Dec. 27 she was hospitalized and doctors found that she had cancer.

Last Saturday, with her husband at her side, Mickey died.

On Wednesday, the Bakers and relatives and friends gathered at a funeral home for Mickey's services. After a while it was discovered that the grieving husband had disappeared.

The parents went home and there they found their son's body in the car, parked in the garage with the doors closed. He had started the motor and carbon monoxide poisoning killed him.

There the parents also found the picture of Mickey and the note: "Mom and Dad — I'm sorry it has to be this way. It's my only chance for happiness."

Saturday their son will be buried beside his bride.

TV Tough Guys Seen Hiking Delinquency

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP) — Those tough guy television programs probably contribute to juvenile delinquency, says mystery writer Eric Stanley Gardner. He told the National Assn. of County and Prosecuting Attorneys that parents should protest against such programs. But he said the real solution is for TV networks to substitute something else.

Johnson Compromise Move On Filibuster Is Backed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate today turned down a key proposal designed by civil rights advocates to clear the way for a tight new curb on filibusters.

The roll call vote was the first test of strength in the swirling battle over rules touched off with the start of the new Senate session two days ago.

The count was 60-36.

It marked a striking victory for Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) and other Democratic and Republican Senate leaders backing a compromise offered by Johnson.

Conversely, it was a major setback for Vice President Richard M. Nixon and a bipartisan anti-filibuster bloc of northern and western senators.

The vote came on a motion by

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.). Anderson's aim was to establish that each new Senate has the right to adopt its own rules by majority vote at the start of a session.

The anti-filibuster forces were still far from giving up.

They said that if they lost out on this first round, they would attempt to change more to their liking a compromise antifilibuster resolution of Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex).

It was Johnson who offered the motion to table Anderson's proposal.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.), one of the coalition leaders, said the showdown on Johnson's tabling motion would be "the do or die vote on this whole question."

Opponents of a change in Senate rules contend that adoption of Anderson's motion would leave the Senate without any rules and open up a Pandora's Box of confusion.

In a move to counter that argument, the coalition forces planned to revise the proposal somewhat before the showdown vote.

Specifically, it would be revised to read that the rules of the Senate in the last Congress shall prevail in the new 86th Congress except for Rule 22, the antifilibuster rule.

Another new section would spell out that immediately following adoption of the resolution, the next order of business in the Senate would be to consider the revision of Rule 22.

Leaders of the coalition generally are urging that Rule 22 be overhauled to permit filibusters to be cut off by the votes of 50 senators, or a majority of all 98 senators.

Under the present rule, it takes the votes of 66 senators, or two-thirds of the entire membership, to bring a debate to a halt and force an issue to a vote.

Johnson's compromise proposal would permit filibusters to be choked off by two-thirds of the senators present and voting. This also would apply to motion to change the rules, now exempt from any debate limitation.

Now, both Senate and House clerks are Democratic, and the vote of either with DiSalle could make Bateman jobless.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills, Dunmore Road, yesterday attended the funeral of Orin Dillon, former mayor of Crown City, Gallia County. Mr. Dillon was an uncle of Mrs. Mills.

Police Campaign On Paper Thefts

The Circleville Police Department has initiated a campaign here to prevent the stealing of newspapers from outside stands at local business establishments.

The drive started yesterday when James Vinos, 77, 135 Pinckney St., appeared in Circleville Municipal Court on an accusation of taking two newspapers from the local bus station.

Vinos was fined $50 and costs. The court suspended $25 of the fine and placed the accused on probation for six months. He was arrested by city police.

Officers said local firms employing the honor system newspaper stands have been advised to report such thefts.

Business Briefs

There are now 337 manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers in Pickaway County including 227 such firms in the City of Circleville. The figures were obtained from a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for November, 1959.

The Reference Book, incidentally, lists only manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. It does not include some of the service and beauty and barber shops and stock and real estate brokers. Thus, the figures for business in Pickaway County actually are higher than the 357 quoted.

Check Exchanges Bring Suits Of Using Mails to Defraud

Arthur P. Berger, 57, Orient, and Frank B. Teegardin, 52, Columbus, are two of three men indicted Wednesday by a federal grand jury in Columbus for conspiracy to violate federal criminal statutes prohibiting fraudulent use of the United States mails.

Third man indicted was Ralph P. Stitt, 53, Clarksburg. Berger is a livestock buyer and former director of the Commercial Point Bank. Teegardin is president of the Columbus Union Stockyards.

Stitt is a former Ross County Commissioner. According to the indictment, the three conspired in defrauding banks by "kiting" or exchanging bank checks among themselves on uncollected or insufficient fund accounts.

Among civil actions already filed against Berger are two filed in Ross County Court by the Commercial Point Bank. They are against Stitt and Berger for $17,735.03 and the second against the Drummon Meat Co., Chillicothe, (operated by Berger's son), for $4,960.72.

Other suits are two actions by the Scioto Bank against Berger and the ABC Stockyards, Washington C. H., for damages of $1,155.68 in Fayette County; Washington C. H. Union Stockyards, suits of $2,925.58 and $9,158.74, and Herbert Wunder, suits of $15,475.76 and $15,767.60 in Pickaway County.

Unusual fact of the case is that recently the Pickaway County Common Pleas Court awarded the Columbus Union Stockyards, of which Teegardin is president, a judgment of $17,033.83 plus interest against Berger.

The Rev. Harold Cowdrick will officiate at the services. Burial will be in Bethel Cemetery, near Hillsdale.

Mr. Strenthenberger was a member of Elmdale Grange. Grange members will hold memorial services at 7:30 p. m. Saturday at the Hill Funeral Home. Friends may call at the funeral home after 6 p. m. Friday.

DORINDA LYNN BEALE

Dorinda Lynn Beale, 3-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Beale, 33 West Frambes Ave., Columbus, died unexpectedly on Jan. 4, 1957, as constituting the conspirator.

Two sisters, Mrs. Mable McCarty, Chillicothe, and Miss Pauline Streitenberger, Route 1, Chillicothe; a daughter, Mrs. Eileen Hatfield, Chillicothe; eight grandchildren.

Other survivors are two sons, Lloyd J. Streitenberger, Route 4, Chillicothe, and Warren H. Chillicothe; a daughter, Mrs. Eileen Hatfield, Chillicothe; eight grandchildren.

The Rev. Harold Cowdrick will officiate at the services. Burial will be in Bethel Cemetery, near Hillsdale.

Local Firemen List Activity During Year

The Circleville Fire Department answered calls on the average of about two days during 1958, according to a yearly report submitted by Chief Talmer Wise.

The report by Chief Wise noted that his department answered 180 calls in the city during the year. An additional 20 calls were made to rural areas.

Chief Wise said fire loss in the city amounted to $3,400, a low total compared to the large number of alarms.

Valuable service was obtained from the departments emergency ambulance which made 60 runs during the year.

CHIEF WISE said department vehicles used 155 gallons of gasoline and 6½ quarts of oil. The department operates three fire trucks and the ambulance.

Chief Wise submitted the report to Mayor Ben H. Gordon, Safety Director Miller Fissel and members of city council.

According to the chief, his department now is in the process of completing an inventory of all property at the fire station on E. Franklin St.

STOCK PRICES Head Toward Another High

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market surged toward another record peak in extremely heavy trading today. Some initial gains were pared early this afternoon.

Gains of fractions to more than a point were held as the market advanced on a broad front. The earlier gains stretched to about 20 points for pivotal issues.

More than a million shares were traded in the first hour. The pace remained heavy but slightly below the early rate.

The ticker tape was as fast as five minutes behind transactions at one phase—the worst delay since the sharp correction of Nov. 24.

The rise of industrials included good gains by copper, steels, motors, chemicals, aircrafts, electronics and selected issues. Oils and airlines were mixed. The utility and rail sections also rose.

Veteran Wall Streeters said the main reason for the rise was a bandwagon following of Thursday's sharp recovery. The news background, however, continued good.

HOAX ROBBERY Report Made To Foil Little Woman

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Police said 31-year-old William Herbert admitted today he concocted a story of a $700 robbery to keep his wife from knowing he was the victim of a confidence game.

Herbert first claimed two men grabbed his money in a downtown bank Wednesday and fled.

Actually, he said today, the men had bet him $100 he couldn't withdraw most of his money from his savings account. He showed them he could and they "paid up" by wrapping two $50 bills around his pass book.

Then somehow the $50 bills and the $700 disappeared. While Herbert searched his pass book and pockets in bewilderment, the two men sauntered out of the bank.

Patrol Unit Holds Banquet, Installation

The Pickaway County Unit of the Ohio Highway Patrol Auxiliary held its yearly banquet and installation of 1959 officers last night at Tink's Tavern. There were 21 members and wives present.

Guests attending the dinner were Capt. and Mrs. David Unkle, General Headquarters, Columbus; Lt. and Mrs. John Brooks, Sgt. and Mrs. R. E. Hoskey, Sgt. Letzler, and retiring First Sgt. and Mrs. B. P. Hughes of District Six Headquarters; Cpl. and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, Ptl. James Cooper, Ptl. W. D. Benson, and Ptl. and Mrs. Gene Miller of Post 25 Columbus.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. David McDonald of the Mac's Goodyear Store who have given store window space to the auxiliary at Pumpkin Show time for a Highway Safety Display.

After a short business session, conducted by outgoing Captain L. Robert Liston Jr., the meeting was turned over to Ptl. Miller who acted as master of ceremonies and installing officer. The 1959 officers are: Capt. Harold Schein, Route 2, Circleville; Williamsport Lieutenant George List, Route 2, Circleville; and Circleville Lieutenant Wayne R. Moon Jr., 237½ E. Main St.

FOUR Sergeants installed were Marvin Jenkins, 333 Watt St., Gordon A. Perrill, Ashville, and Harry A. Keller Jr., and Norman Leist, both of Williamsport. Name and Chaplain was Clarence McAbee, Chillicothe. Walter Pickel Jr., 222 E. Mound St., reassumed the post of secretary-treasurer.

After a talk by Commander Brooks, the Unit adjourned to a Dancing party at the American Legion Home, E. Main St.

Legion To Host 7th District 1959 Conference

The Circleville American Legion Hall-Adkins Post No. 134 will host the 7th District American Legion Conference Sunday at the Legion Home, E. Main St.

Pickaway County Common Pleas

Judge William Ammer will make the welcoming address at 9:30 a. m. Sunday. Principal speaker will be Pat Home, American Legion Department of Ohio Service Officer.

The Conference will start at 9:30 a. m. until noon and from 1 p. m. until conclusion. Albert Vest, 7th District Commander, will preside over the Conference.

A dance will precede the Conference on Saturday. Dancing from 9 p. m. until midnight. All Legion members are invited to attend.

Deputies Find Stolen Auto

The Walnut Twp. senior class yesterday made the high bid for the concession stand at the forthcoming Pickaway County Basketball Tournament, it was announced in a meeting of County superintendents and supervising principals.

Much of yesterday's meeting was concerned with plans being made for the tourney, which will start February 11 and run through February 20.

Chairmen of the tourney are C. E. Mahaffey and Ben Lutz, Ashville. Referees selected for the tournament by a vote of the County's basketball coaches were Robert Moon, Jack Malone, William Ankrom and Ernest Ankrom.

Cecil Roebuck, principal at Williamsport, approached the group on the possibility of holding an All-Star Basketball Benefit for the March of Dimes campaign, starting next year.

THE GROUP postponed action on the proposal until principals had an opportunity to discuss the matter with their respective coaches.

If the game were held, it would count as a game for each youth participating. It would also have to be run by the schools, which would then turn the profits over to the Polio group.

Mainly About People

Ralph Hunt, Route 1, and son, Ralph Hunt Jr., Stoutsville, have returned to their homes after a visit with Mr. Hunt's brother, Charles, in Florida.

William A. Francis, Kingston, is a medical patient in Chillicothe Hospital.

Marriages licenses have been obtained in Ross County by James M. Smith and Helen E. McNeal, both of Adelphi, and Joe and Ned Adelphi and Marjorie A. Van Fossen of Route 2, Laurelvile.

Mrs. Nora McKenney, 127 Parkview, is confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills, Dunmore Road, yesterday attended the funeral of Orin Dillon, former mayor of Crown City, Gallia County. Mr. Dillon was an uncle of Mrs. Mills.

Police Campaign On Paper Thefts

The Circleville Police Department has initiated a campaign here to prevent the stealing of newspapers from outside stands at local business establishments.

The drive started yesterday when James Vinos, 77, 135 Pinckney St., appeared in Circleville Municipal Court on an accusation of taking two newspapers from the local bus station.

Vinos was fined $50 and costs. The court suspended $25 of the fine and placed the accused on probation for six months. He was arrested by city police.

Officers said local firms employing the honor system newspaper stands have been advised to report such thefts.

Business Briefs

There are now 357 manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers in Pickaway County including 227 such firms in the City of Circleville. The figures were obtained from a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for November, 1959.

The Reference Book, incidentally, lists only manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. It does not include some of the service and beauty and barber shops and stock and real estate brokers. Thus, the figures for business in Pickaway County actually are higher than the 357 quoted.

Jesus Asks Total Commitment

CHRIST WARNS THAT WEALTH MAY BE A HANDICAP IN ENTERING INTO GOD'S KINGDOM

Scripture — Mark 10:17-31.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

DR. WILBUR M. SMITH suggests that the younger classes be introduced to this lesson by asking one member of the class to hold a few pennies in one hand, but not to use the other hand at all. Then the teacher will offer the child a larger single piece of money. Naturally, if the child keeps the pennies he cannot take the coin that is worth more, so he must drop the pennies to gain the larger coin. As our lesson progresses, we see that a man held onto what he felt was most important, but threw away a chance to gain what was much more valuable.

To the older classes the suggestion is to acknowledge that man will give up most things to save his life—wealth, comfort, or whatever is necessary. The more important question is, how may a man have eternal life?

Jesus and His disciples were on the coast of Judea by the farther side of Jordan. A rich young man came running to Him and threw himself at Christ's feet, asking, "Good master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?" —Mark 10:17.

MEMORY VERSE
"The things which are impossible with men are possible with God." —Luke 18:27.

Jesus told him to keep the commandments, and he answered that he had done that all his life.

Jesus loved this young man on sight and said to him: "One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow Me."

The man was sad and went away sorrowfully, for he had many possessions. —Mark 10:21-22.

Christ must have been grieved, too, but He said to His disciples, "How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!" When the disciples were astonished at this saying, Jesus explained, "Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God!" —Mark 10:23.

enrich the world.

We who are not rich also contribute what we can to the many good causes that help mankind in our own and other countries. Our contributions may be small, but every little bit helps.

Who shall inherit eternal life?

Those who believe in God and His Son, Jesus Christ, and strive, no matter what their circumstances in life, to love and help others.

Those who strive to "follow Him," as he asked the rich young ruler, who did not realize how rich would have been his life here and hereafter if he had accepted Christ's invitation.

Peter reminded Christ that His apostles had "left all and have followed Thee." Jesus answered him by saying that "no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My sake, and the gospel's, But . . . shall receive an hundred fold . . . and in the world to come eternal life." —Mark 10:28-30.

Now one physical examination for Life Insurance carries you through the years!

As we advance in age every man sooner or later will cross the line of insurability when he can no longer buy life insurance, or must pay higher rates for it.

Now . . . for the first time a revolutionary new idea that guarantees your "insurability" to age 40 . . . gives you the right to buy added insurance at standard rates, REGARDLESS OF HEALTH.

This new concept was introduced by Bankers Life Company. It is designed to answer the age-old insurance question: "When I need more insurance and can afford it—will I be able to get it?"

Think what this means to the man just starting out in the business world . . . the young doctor . . . lawyer . . . men who know they will want more life insurance as they "grow". For only pennies-a-day more than the cost of an ordinary plan they can NOW guarantee the right to buy additional insurance later — REGARDLESS OF HEALTH.

Let me tell you all about this exciting new life insurance concept. Call me today.

Jesus Asks Total Commitment

CHRIST WARNS THAT WEALTH MAY BE A HANDICAP IN ENTERING INTO GOD'S KINGDOM

Scripture — Mark 10:17-21.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

DR. WILBUR M. SMITH suggests that the younger classes be introduced to this lesson by asking one member of the class to hold a few pennies in one hand, but not to use the other hand at all. Then the teacher will offer the child a larger single piece of money. Naturally, if the child keeps the pennies that is worth more, so he must drop the pennies to gain the larger coin. As our lesson progresses, we see that a man held onto what he felt was most important, but threw away a chance to gain what was much more valuable.

To the older classes the suggestion is to acknowledge that man will give up most anything to save his life—wealth, comfort, or whatever is necessary. The more important question is, how may a man have eternal life? Jesus and His disciples were on the coast of Judaea by the farther side of Jordan. A rich young man came running to Him through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." — Mark 10:23.

"Who then can be saved?" Christ's disciples asked Him. His answer was: "With men it is impossible, but with God: for with God all things are possible." — Mark 10:26-27.

That saying of the Master is a lesson for all of us, young and old. If you have a task that seems to be impossible to perform, pray to your heavenly Father and He will show you the way to accomplish it.

In our great country there are many men of great wealth who are devoting large sums of money to benefit people not only here but all over the world. They are setting up institutions of learning and developing research centers to combat diseases that maim and destroy men's lives.

They set up scholarships to help young people who have talent to get education and to instruct them how to use their gifts to enrich the world.

We who are not rich also contribute what we can to the many good causes that help mankind in our own and other countries. Our contributions may be small, but every little bit helps.

Who shall inherit eternal life? Those who believe in God and His Son, Jesus Christ, and strive, no matter what their circumstances in life, to love and help others.

Those who strive to "follow Him," as he asked the rich young ruler, who did not realize how rich would have been his life here and hereafter if he had accepted Christ's invitation.

Peter reminded Christ that His apostles had "left all and followed Thee." Jesus answered him by saying that "no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My sake, and the gospel's. But... shall receive an hundred fold... in this world to come eternal life." — Mark 10:28-30.

As we advance in age every man sooner or later will cross the line of insurability when he can no longer buy life insurance, or must pay higher rates for it.

Now... for the first time a revolutionary new idea that guarantees your "insurability" to age 40... gives you the right to buy added insurance at standard rates, REGARDLESS OF HEALTH.

This new concept was introduced by Bankers Life Company. It is designed to answer the age-old insurance question: "When I need more insurance and can afford it—will I be able to get it?"

Think what this means to the man just starting out in the business world... the young doctor... lawyer... men who know they will want more life insurance as they "grow".

For only pennies-a-day more than the cost of an ordinary plan they can NOW guarantee the right to buy additional insurance later — REGARDLESS OF HEALTH.

Frenchman Says Best-Dressed U.S. Women in Small Cities

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

America's most elegant women live either in New York or in smaller cities such as San Diego, says Antoine, Parisian dean of hairdressers.

Philadelphia: "As to elegance, very poor."

Hollywood: "It's not real, everybody's on exhibition."

Houston: "It's so big you never see women walking — only riding in cars."

Chicago: "There's only one good thing about Chicago — the lake."

Antoine says he finds few mistakes in good taste among American women, but there is a lack of individuality.

"Everybody is too rushed here," says he. "

Russia's Shot To Be Matched

Now the Western world knows what the Soviet Union has been up to for the past six months. Since Russia took the space world by storm in the fall of 1957 with a series of Sputnik launchings, there has been scant information seeping through the iron curtain to foretell the next Soviet endeavors in space exploration.

It hardly comes as a surprise to the free world to note the first publicly announced Soviet moon shot, although the long absence of spectacular space news from the Kremlin was beginning to build up hopes that the United States might at last be surpassing the Soviet Union in this phase of space conquest.

The U. S. has made three attempts to reach the vicinity of the moon, but only one attained any appreciable altitude.

How many failures were produced before the Russians succeeded in launching "Planet 3" will probably never be known. It is of little consequence, except as a salve for injured U. S. pride. The Russians have proved conclusively that they are still leading the space race, although the gap of a year ago has been narrowed considerably.

Dr. Werhner von Braun, the U. S. Army's top missile man, and a recognized world expert in the missile and rocket field, estimated shortly after the space race began that the Soviet Union was leading by about five years in space research and development. The recent successful launching of the huge Atlas satellite and the three moon shots, failures though they were, prove the U. S. is not far from matching the Soviet skill.

Announcement by the Russians that the next step will be to plant human feet on the moon was more of a propaganda barrage than a realistic objective. Compared to human space travel, the launching of a single moon rocket is elementary.

There can be no doubt that the latest Russian achievement has set a new goal for the U. S. to match. This one should be more easily attained with the present high-gear U. S. space agencies than the launching of America's first satellite was back in September of 1957.

No Gout from High Living

NEW YORK (AP)—Justice has been done at last to several hundred thousand of nature's noblemen in America.

They are the victims of gout.

These men share a recurrent agony that in the past has afflicted such giants of mankind as Alexander the Great, Isaac Newton, Martin Luther, John Calvin, Goethe, Francis Bacon, Guy de Maupassant and Benjamin Franklin.

The pangs of gout are excruciating. But almost as hard for its victim to wear are the ridicule and lack of sympathy he receives from his so-called friends. They are sure his ailment is a penalty sent from heaven to punish him for living too fast and too loose.

This big lie is struck down formally in a pamphlet "About Gout."

"It has been common belief for centuries that gout was caused by high living — eating rich foods and drinking too much of alcoholic beverages," says the pamphlet. "We now know that 'high living' does not cause gout."

By Hal Boyle

"Gout is a defect in the body's chemistry which frequently leads to an arthritic condition," says the pamphlet. "Gout is never contagious but probably hereditary.

"This metabolic abnormality causes an increase in the amounts of uric acid in the blood and tissues."

The uric acid excess, accumulating in crystalline deposits in cartilage, usually around bone joints, sets up the painful irritation known as gout.

Gout is perhaps as old as man himself, and was known to Hippocrates, the father of medicine, four centuries before Christ.

When a man gets an attack, he may wish he'd die—but he won't.

We Must Keep Will To Live

By George Sokolsky

Some members of my family had come to visit me and we were all gay, when a telephone message came in to say that my friend and colleague, Seymour Berkson, publisher of the "New York Journal American," had died suddenly of a heart attack.

Seymour was a young and valiant newspaperman who rapidly reached the top of his craft. Berkson had his warning but would not stop. He worked up to the last "moment" without regard to his health. He dictated 10 pages of instructions about news and then he died.

There is nothing amusing in the news of the day and yet, if we are not to be bored, there must be something going on that is amusing, even if it is only an old lady robbing a bank. Women who rob look so sweet and casual. But the reporter devotes himself in this era to the big criminals who head governments and die in bed, poisoned by their successors as Lenin and Stalin probably were.

It is a mad era and the madness is among the great as among the simple people who believe that they can still get rich and live fabulous lives by cheating on their income taxes or the rich who hide their money here and there until one day, Congress will abolish green money and print purple money.

A newspaperman, like Seymour Berkson, was on the top of all this and it worried him and he was everlastingly in search of a story until his heart grew tired and gave out.

One thinks of so many things, lying on one of those hard hospital beds that seem never to fit just right in spite of all the winding up the nurses do. And learn to restrain himself. He must learn not to get tired.

Suddenly one is well when nobody understands why he is so quickly recovered, except that in the patient's own mind, he has never really been what is called sick; he has had an accident but he is a well man, a whole man and to prove it he smiles. It is such a marvelous feeling — that smile. For it is life restored. Dead men do not smile. But the live man, if he is a heart patient, must learn self-restraint. That becomes the essence of his living.

Once during the days when I was asleep, I opened my eyes and there was my daughter looking at me. Perhaps to her, I was now an aged man whose blood pressure had to be taken every 15 minutes to make sure that he had any. Who knows what was in her mind? But I know what I saw. I saw her and life was continuous. Nobody could say that I was dead because I still saw my daughter.

One looks through the obituary columns to see who lives and who died. Bill Corum died while I was ill—Bill Corum, so robust, so strong, so full of life, one of the best men in my profession. And now Seymour Berkson—one of a cancer, the other of a heart ailment. The mysteries of life and death are beyond us.

Before one goes to be operated upon, these thoughts, in one form or another, run through the mind as they did through mine and as I am sure they ran through Seymour Berkson's for he was of a philosophic turn.

It becomes so clear as the days pass and the eyes open to sunlight that the will to live is so important as part of the cure.

Not everyone has the will to live, for so many know of no reason why they should continue to live.

But if one feels God's presence, that is, if one is so passionately a believer in God's gentle mercy and if one believes that prayer does aid, prayer has therapeutic value because it strengthens the will to live. If one does not live any longer for himself, he lives in response to his prayers to God. But to live every person who has been ill must sacrifice much. He must

Protect Child's Hearing

By Herman N. Bundesen, M. D.
In the past I have given you many suggestions on how you can detect hearing difficulties in your children, even babies.

Now I'd like to pass on a few tips about how you can help protect your youngsters' hearing.

As with childhood illnesses, parents are the first line of defense for young children's ear troubles. This defense line is drawn early, even before birth.

Early pre-natal care is essential, since the inner ear is completely formed during the first four months of pregnancy. You all know the potential dangers of German measles when they strike an expectant mother. Well, one of these dangers is the possibility that the child's ears may be damaged and his hearing will suffer.

Following birth, the child himself must be protected from diseases. Those factors most likely to cause hearing loss include the various diseases, such as chicken pox, measles and mumps, allergies and head colds.

Common sense protection is about all you can give your child when it comes to such wide-spread diseases as these. No matter what you do, he probably will come down with most of them some time during his school years, if not before.

When he does, see to it that he gets prompt and adequate medical attention. Your doctor knows the possible ear dangers involved and he can take steps to prevent many hearing damages.

Now a few words to all you new mothers:

Don't — and I repeat — don't clean your baby's ears too often or too thoroughly. You can gently wipe the portion of the ear that you can reach easily. But don't probe too deeply, don't wipe too vigorously, and don't wash the ears too often.

For the person who doesn't like the taste of whisky and gin, vodka is an easy out. And just as fast.

Another reason for vodka's popularity is, you can mix it with anything. Try some and see how you're ready to mix it.

Any accident which brings a blow to the head might injure the delicate hearing mechanism of any child, or adult for that matter.

Be practical when selecting furniture for the new arrival. Make sure the legs of the high chair are set wide apart for good stability, that the elevating sides of the crib can't be lowered by the child himself as he grows in size and strength, and that everything in the home be made as safe as possible.

Question and Answer

R. S.: Can patients with gastric cancer really be helped?

Answer: Yes. The old feeling that we could not help a patient with gastric cancer has about disappeared.

You're Telling Me!

By WILLIAM RITT
Central Press Writer

Dr. I. M. Altaraz told the American Association for the Advancement of Science that our vodka production has jumped 3,736 percent in seven years. And yet some people think the Russians have given up boring from within.

Dr. Altaraz, a psychologist, says vodka has no stigma like whisky and gin, and thus appeals to the social drinker. A few vodkas and the social drinker never felt more shooch.

For the person who doesn't like the taste of whisky and gin, vodka is an easy out. And just as fast.

Another reason for vodka's popularity is, you can mix it with anything. Try some and see how you're ready to mix it.

Psychiatric Test For Slayer Slated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Warren Ralph W. Alvis of Ohio Penitentiary has ordered a psychiatric examination for Rell Blankenship, 44, convicted slayer scheduled to die in the electric chair Jan. 16.

Blankenship was convicted of the fatal shooting of Loren Gus Borden, 26, in the Gallia County jail at Gallipolis Aug. 17, 1957. He had been held in jail on a non-support charge.

Blankenship grabbed the gun of the sheriff, Oscar Baird, as the latter thwarted him in an escape attempt. He never offered an explanation for firing at Borden, a fellow prisoner.

A bride may look very stunning, but did you ever notice how stunned the groom looks?

By Hal Boyle

Gout remains one of the most masculine of ailments. No eunuchs and comparatively few women ever get it.

The fact so many famous men were gout sufferers led one 19th century observer to write that the disease is "peculiarly incidental to men of cultivated mind and intellectual distinction." The pamphlet is less flattering: "There is, unfortunately, no modern medical evidence to support this statement."

Gout remains largely a medical mystery. Obesity seems to make it worse. No one diet seems to control it, but its victims generally are advised to avoid foods such as sweetbreads, anchovies, sardines, liver, kidney, brains and meat extracts.

When a man gets an attack, he must wish he'd die—but he won't.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Every year now the country is being handed what amounts to two State of the Union messages; one from President Eisenhower, the other from Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, leader of the Senate Democrats.

Before Eisenhower could go up to Congress to deliver his today, Johnson had already stated his. He did it Wednesday at a Democratic meeting.

It's part of American history that at the beginning of each session of Congress the President tells the representatives and senators about the state of the union.

The message is in effect his program for the year. But it's up to Congress whether to make the program a reality with legislation.

Johnson, who denies he has any ambitions for the presidency, seems to be making his message an annual event, too. He did it last year before Eisenhower could travel up to the Capitol. Now he's done it again.

While Eisenhower's message might be considered the senior one and Johnson's just a junior message, both are important and for a very obvious reason:

By James Marlow

In a Congress where the Democrats have an overwhelming majority over the Republicans, Eisenhower is going to have to depend mostly on the Democrats to put his program through.

But Johnson, as leader of the Democrats, is in a good position to push for his own program over Eisenhower's if he doesn't like what the President offers. This year, as last, Johnson was critical of the Eisenhower administration's leadership.

The President's message, of course, gets complete coverage by the press and plenty of copies of it are made available. But the Johnson statement was widely distributed, too.

The two messages have one thing in common: They talk in broad, general terms. Eisenhower will follow up his during the year with more details in separate proposals he'll send up one at a time.

But Johnson even beat the President to that idea. Last Nov. 7, right after the Democrats had drowned the Republicans in the elections, Johnson made a speech before a group of Texas business men.

But before he ever got there his speech was all prepared, mimeographed and distributed to newsmen in Washington, thus getting for it a maximum amount of publicity.

Johnson outlined a 12-point program, some parts of which seemed destined to draw Eisenhower's fire and might even be in conflict with what the President had to say in his message today. Johnson called for:

1. A new farm program. (Eisenhower has said he would not propose any change in the administration farm policy).

2. Help for areas of chronic unemployment. (Eisenhower last year vetoed an area development bill which far exceeded his own recommended program).

3. Stepped up water development in the West.

4. Lowering of interest rates that he said were slowing down economic growth.

5. A "bold" housing program.

6. An expanded airport building program.

7. Review of foreign policy.

8. A "consistent policy for Latin America which will help our neighbors to help themselves."

9. Breathing life into the newly created space agency and launching a program to explore outer space.

10. A program to develop peaceful uses of the atom.

11. Urban renewal.

12. Passage of a labor bill to curb racketeers.

Kindergarten Tutor Saves Tot from Dog

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 19 children in Miss Barbara Drugan's Kindergarten class were romping in the school playground when the big dog suddenly sprang and went for the throat of a 5-year-old.

The animal dragged the girl to the ground and began chewing at her face.

What would you do?

"The only thing I did was the best thing I could do," said Miss Drugan. "I froze stiff."

"Then I regained a little bit of composure and pulled and pulled and pulled Suan away from the dog."

Little Susan Ziegler, who could only lay there, unresisting, as the animal tore at her face and neck, could have been hurt a lot more seriously except for Miss Drugan's actions.

As it was, Susan required nine stitches. The dog missed the child's jugular vein by about an eighth of an inch, Miss Drugan said.

It was near lunchtime Thursday when the dog, Keeno, a Norwegian Elk Hound about three years old, appeared in the playground outside Bexley Cassingham School in suburban Bexley. The dog approached him.

Then, without warning, the animal raced into the group. There were some 30 children on the playground at the time.

"The dog was mad as far as I could see," said Miss Drugan, a teacher for 12 years.

"He was terribly strong," she went on. "He was up and down and around her (Susan) and I tried to pull her away from him. I pulled so hard I tore her dress."

After rescuing Susan, Miss Drugan, who says she's "over 25," told the other children to climb on top of playground equipment, out of the dog's reach. Then she took Susan into the building.

Later, police charged the dog's owner with allowing a vicious dog to run loose.

"I'm not afraid of dogs," said the heroic schoolmarm. Then, after a pause: "I didn't used to be—but I am now, I'm sorry to say."

That blunt opinion was expressed by George C. Kenney, who retired as a four-star general in 1951.

Ohio Moonshine Raids Near Record in 1958

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Enforcement officers of Ohio's Liquor Department confiscated more stills during 1958 than in any year since 1942. Director Floyd C. Moon reported today that department agents seized four stills during December, bringing the year's total to 38, highest since 1942, when 46 stills were confiscated.

SNUG WAY UP THERE — While other folks in Indianapolis, Ind., shiver and tramp through a five-inch snow, Muriel Kirby is snug in her little house atop that 72-foot pole. The 17-year-old miss intends to stay till mid-February, which would put her well beyond world pole sitting mark.

Writer, 40, Found Dead in City 'Jungle'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Edgar Scott Wood, well-known former radio-television newscaster here and in Pittsburgh, was found Thursday lying dead at the bottom of a flight of stairs in a neighborhood that a coroner describes as "the jungle."

Dr. Robert A. Evans, coroner, said Wood may have fractured his skull in a fall from the second floor stairway in a rooming house. And although the death of the 40-year-old Army technical writer appeared to be accidental, the coroner said, investigation will continue because of "several factors that have come to my attention."

He did not elaborate.

Dr. Evans said Wood apparently fell when a heel of his shoe caught on one of the steps.

Wood, who until six months ago was a newscaster on television stations WTVN-TV and WLW-C here, was known to have been out drinking with some companions the night before. The friends told police they left him, thinking he was about to take a bus to downtown Columbus.

Wood, who lived with his wife, Marjorie, and three children in suburban Upper Arlington, formerly worked for radio station WCAE in Pittsburgh and had done free lance news work for WDTV and KDKA there. He also had taught radio, drama and speech at three universities. At the time of his death he was employed at the Columbus General (Army) depot.

9-Foot 'Oscar' For Todd Rapped

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences has spiced plans to mark showman Mike Todd's Chicago grave with a 9-foot-high Oscar.

"The Oscar is protected by copyright," said a spokesman for the academy. "All who receive it sign a receipt they and their heirs will respect this copyright."

He said it could not be used to mark a grave.

Todd's brother, David Goldbogen, had said in Chicago he was planning to erect a two-ton marble statue over the grave.

Todd won an Academy Award Oscar for his movie "Around the World in 80 Days." He died in a plane crash last March 21.

Ike's Budget Linked to Big Business Profit

Optimistic Forecasts Call for Record High In Earnings in 1959

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The state of the Union's business today is good. It's so healthy that President Eisenhower will offer a federal budget based in part on the expectation that corporate profits in 1959 will reach a record 48 billion dollars.

This compares with the 31½ billion dollar annual rate in the first three months of last year.

Many industries have climbed back from the slump in output remarkably fast.

What Congress will do for business this year is any one's guess. Involved are such things as: taxes, labor legislation, anti-trust inquiries, monetary policies bearing on inflation, foreign trade.

Some think that what business will do for and to itself is still more important.

The rapidity with which profits are bouncing back may open up a pandora's box of its own.

If profits reach a peak of 48 billion dollars, that could inspire labor leaders to raise their sights. With prospects for labor-management strife this year already strong, this could increase the threat of major strikes.

Enough of these for long durations could play hob with the expectations of the administration to balance the budget with the aid of tax collections on record profits.

Peak profits probably wouldn't go unnoticed by consumers either. They might ask embarrassing questions about the need for such high prices.

Most businessmen seem content with the steady, if moderately paced, industrial recovery. Some chafe whenever the Federal Reserve Board tightens up on credit when it fears more inflation, which could be the aftermath of the current federal deficit and the continuing pressure of higher wages on prices. But as many, probably, fear inflation as much as they do tight money.

The activity of Congress over the next seven or eight months will be a major concern of business. The chances of corporate tax relief, strict regulation of labor, and a balanced budget seem poor. More preoccupation of congressmen with mergers and the growing size of big business is widely expected.

Atomic Activity Booming in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Atomic activity in Ohio is mushrooming much like the cloud that has become symbolic where the atom is concerned, says William H. Eells, the state's first full-time coordinator.

Liberal Educator Quits College Post

BRONXVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — Dr. Harold Taylor, articulate and controversial spokesman for liberal education and academic freedom, has resigned as president of Sarah Lawrence College.

The 44-year-old educator had hoped that as president of the women's college here he would be a faculty member with additional responsibilities.

But he says that now—lacking any time for classroom teaching—he prefers to return to the role of philosopher and scholar rather than continue with administration and fund raising.

Taylor's resignation was accepted by the college trustees, effective June 30.

'The Mighty Nine' Program Presented to Monday Club

The Monday Club, a member of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, convened for the new year in the Trustees' room of the Memorial Hall Monday evening with Mrs. Bishop Given presiding.

Resolutions of respect for Mrs. George Fishaw were read and submitted by Mrs. E. S. Shane, Mrs. A. P. McCord and Mrs. Richard Robinson.

Mrs. Lawrence Johnson was appointed as a delegate to represent the Monday Club at the Pickaway County Assn. of Women's Clubs' meetings.

Reports were given by Mrs. James Reichelderfer on the sales of the Ohioana Library Calendars and by Mrs. Kenneth Robbins on that of the articles of the Ohio School for the Blind.

All interested members were urged to attend the open meeting for planning the sesquicentennial January 14 in the Trustees' room. A stirring prelude preceding Mrs. Joseph Adkins' paper "The Mighty Nine" was given by the Monday Club chorus under the direction of Mrs. James Moffit and accompanied by Mrs. T. L. Huston. It sang Fred Waring's arrangement of "Where in the World (But in America)".

Mrs. Ralph E. Dunkel then presented Mrs. Adkins whose topic "The Mighty Nine" was seventh in a series of the theme of the year "Eternal Vigilance."

Mrs. Adkins initial statement proclaimed that the United States Supreme Court is the most distinctive feature of the American system of government — the supreme court in the world. It is a wholly unique feature with regard to the extent of its powers. She said that the democratic nations of England and France, as well as the now democratic nations of Italy and Russia have nothing corresponding to it. That Canada, Australia, British South Africa and some South American States have given to their courts a strictly limited right to review legislation under certain circumstances, but no other nation has placed the judiciary above

Dr. Carroll Presents Films To Child Club

Dr. Ray Carroll presented a series of films last night to the Child Culture League when it met in his offices for its program. There were 18 members present.

Following the showing of the movies the members adjourned to the home of Mrs. Clarence Hancher Jr., Lynwood Ave. for their business meeting.

Mrs. Hancher presided over the meeting. Projects were discussed for the remainder of the year.

The Philanthropic Committee reported on the Christmas baskets which were given to several families.

The group made plans for Husband Night to be held at the next meeting. They plan to entertain their husbands with a pot-luck supper followed by a square-dance. It will be held at 6:30 p. m. February 17, in the VFW Hall.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Emmett Evans, co-hostesses.

Lady's Strong Arm Routs 2 Store Thugs

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A lady pharmacist with a strong throwing arm routed two gunmen Thursday night with a barrage of bottles.

Mrs. Marian Buckmaster ducked behind a counter when the bandits tried to hold up cashier Marlene Hair, 21, on the other side of the drug store.

She opened her attack with a pint of iodine. The bottle hit one man on the side of the head and broke. The gun in his hand discharged, sending a bullet into Miss Hair's toe.

Mrs. Buckmaster executed a flanking maneuver behind the cover of her counter, popped up and hurled a quart bottle of cough syrup. It smashed on the counter next to the gunmen, drenching them in a sticky retreat, firing wildly about the store at their unseen foe. One bullet smashed into a perfume display, spreading an overpowering aroma over the battlefield.

As the bewildered, battered bandits turned and fled Mrs. Buckmaster loosed a final salvo. She was a little high with the hair oil, missed to the left with the shampoo, but nicked one fleeing figure with the mouth wash.

When it was all over, the drug store was a mess and Miss Hair was hospitalized. But the cash was still in the drawer.

Ever add grated orange rind to package lemon pudding-and-pie filling mix? Nice flavor change!

NYC-Pennsy Merger Plan Is Shelved

NEW YORK (AP)—A possibility of other Eastern railroad mergers arose today from the short-lived and busted romance of the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads.

The Central directors suggested Thursday that a study be made to create three or four rail systems in the East. Pending that, they added, no further steps should be taken toward a corporate merger of the Central with the Pennsylvania.

This was a fairly bitter pill for the Pennsylvania, although the Central directors sweetened it with the statement that they were pleased with results of the merger study and urged immediate "appropriate coordination of facilities which would result in substantial savings."

The possibility of merging the many Eastern lines into three or four major systems has been envisioned for years, with such roads as the Pennsylvania, New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio and Erie each heading one system.

Such a plan would leave the Central and the Pennsylvania in a very competitive position.

It had been apparent for several months that the Central was cool on the merger idea. Its officials, mostly new to the road, believe they have improved the rail plant to a point where it can make big money with a return of boom conditions.

"Ring in the New Year" was the theme for the program presented by the Lecturer, Mrs. Wayne Hines, which opened with a mixer game, called "Musical Nuts". Nancy Hines played a saxophone solo, and she was accompanied by Henrietta Marburger. Mrs. Hines gave remarks on the good and bad of New Year's Resolutions.

Ohio A-Coordinator To Resign Position

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — William H. Eells of Delaware has announced he will resign as Ohio coordinator of atomic development activities.

Eells, the state's first coordinator and the first in the nation, said he will leave the office "in accordance with the established precedent," when Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle takes over from Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill next Monday.

Eells was appointed by O'Neill and serves at the pleasure of the governor. The post pays a $12,000 annual salary. DiSalle has not announced appointment of a coordinator for his administration.

Eells said he was in Cuba for two months, most of the time with the Castro forces. The Cuban leader told him, Eells said, "that from the morale point of view (his being there) helped. Being an American of some prominence, this helped these men who had been fighting for 5½ years."

The actor did not disclose how he had made contact with Castro.

Make double batches of spaghetti sauce and chicken a la king and store one batch of each dish in your freezer.

'The Mighty Nine' Program Presented to Monday Club

The Monday Club, a member of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, convened for the new year in the Trustees' room of the Memorial Hall Monday evening with Mrs. Bishop Given presiding.

Resolutions of respect for Mrs. George Fisipaw were read and submitted by Mrs. E. S. Shane, Mrs. A. P. McCaughan and Mrs. Richard Robinson.

Mrs. Lawrence Johnson was appointed as a delegate to represent the Monday Club at the Pickaway County Assn. of Women's Clubs' meetings.

Reports were given by Mrs. James Reichelderfer on the sales of the Ohioana Library Calendars and by Mrs. Kenneth Robbins on that of the articles of the Ohio School for the Blind.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Emmett Evans, co-hostesses.

In the line of very capable chief justices she said that John Marshall, who succeeded the first Chief Justice John Jay, the greatest (bold when quality was needed discrete, and supreme strategist).

Spreading across the administrations of five Presidents, Chief Justice Roger Brooke Taney's reign was dotted with important decisions the three most momentous being the Dartmouth College Case, McCulloch vs. Maryland, and Gibbons vs. Ogden. The result of these cases was a boom to commercial and financial interests and a shot in the arm to expanding American capitalism.

The succeeding Chief Justice Roger Brooke Taney's reign was a change from vested individual property rights to the personal rights and welfare of the general community that of police power doctrine. Here we find the famous Dred Scott decision. He was appointed by President Jackson.

President Theodore Roosevelt appointed the wise and witty Oliver Wendell Holmes, who was the greatest judicial liberal the court had known with a passionate respect for the rights of others to think differently than himself — civil liberties and freedom of speech.

Never before Roosevelt's New Deal had the proper place of the court in the constitutional scheme been so hotly debated. In this was a tribute to the resiliency of American democracy that in a sense both the court and the president won. At this time under Chief Justice Hughes and the famous nine old men protection of personal freedoms, at least against the states laws took precedent over protection of property rights.

Never in the Court's history have international politics so dominated the decisions as in the past ten years.

It is interesting to follow the evolution of the Court's decisions through the years, with the emphasis placed on the protection of property rights and then gradually changing to the protection of human rights.

It is quite apparent that the Supreme Court of the late 1950's is seeking to carry on even more vigorously the program of protection of human rights so effectively begun by Holmes. In striking down what in their considered judgment a majority of the Court determines to be beyond the permissible bounds of the Constitution, the Supreme Court is merely continuing its historic role of ultimate guardian of human rights and freedom in our society.

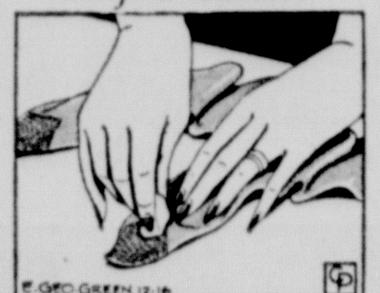

Household Hints

Ever make jam sandwiches and then dip them into an egg-and-milk mixture and fry in butter like french toast?

Sliced bananas, strawberries and oranges are all delicious served in orange juice. Nice for Sunday brunch.

Add a little rum flavoring to the syrup you are using over pears to be baked. Serve with soft custard for a delightful dessert.

Wife Preservers

Coat heels and toes of nylons for protection against wear by rubbing them with a small bit of beeswax.

Flynn Scoffs At Denials From Rebels

NEW YORK (AP)—Actor Errol Flynn flew in from Cuba Thursday and scoffed at denials by some rebels that he took part in the mountain campaign of victorious Fidel Castro.

He alighted at Idlewild International Airport wearing a blue blazer with red buttons, blue slacks, and carrying a black walking stick. Around his neck he had a black bandana decorated with a number of emblems.

Flynn said Castro told him the emblem was to be the new flag of Cuba when he gave it (the bandana) to me." The actor said last Castro Saturday night, Castro made a triumphant entry into Havana Thursday.

As for reports he was not in the revolutionary campaign, Flynn said: "I think it is envy and anti-Moscow. I was the first one there before anyone gave this guy a hope."

Flynn said he was in Cuba for two months, most of the time with the Castro forces. The Cuban leader told him, Flynn said, "that from the morale point of view it (his being there) helped. Being an American of some prominence this helped these men who had been fighting for 5½ years."

Rebuilding Job Turns Out OK For Tar Heels

9th Win in 10 Starts Chalked Up as Wake Forest Stall Fails

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

What was shrugged off as a year of rebuilding looks as if it could turn out to be a good deal more for Frank McGuire and his North Carolina Tar Heels.

The Tar Heels, still well fed by McGuire's talent pipeline from the North, bagged their ninth victory in 10 starts against grade A opposition Thursday night with a 44-34 defeat of Wake Forest.

Wake Forest tried a slowdown Thursday night, holding the ball four minutes at the start of the game, attempting only seven shots in the first half and generally using possession to try to match North Carolina's superior height.

The Tar Heels, tying rival North Carolina State's 4-0 record in the Atlantic Coast Conference, shook loose for a 17-11 halftime advantage and stayed comfortably ahead the rest of the way in their first experience with the slowdown.

The Tar Heels, third-ranked nationally, and 11th-peged West Virginia were the only rated teams in action in the slim Thursday program.

West Virginia, with Jerry West whipping in eight of his 32 points in overtime, downed Penn State 89-81. It was the Mounties' 11th victory in 14 starts.

St. Bonaventure, one of the nation's four major unbeaten teams, kept its record intact despite sloppy play by defeating Iona (N.Y.) 68-54 in the opener of a doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Seton Hall won the other part of the doubleheader, nipping Muhlenberg 57-55.

Centenary bagged the 63rd and last title of the holiday tournament avalanche, spilling Spring Hill 71-57 in the Senior Bowl final at Mobile, Murray (Ky.) took consolation honors, 74-71 over Tennessee Tech.

Eastern Tennessee downed Morehead (Ky.) 85-76 in an Ohio Valley Conference test, Miami (Fla.) handed touring Toronto University a 55-75 defeat, and Wofford beat winless Erskine, 67-58.

Seventeen of sophomore Bill Smith's 23 points were free throws as St. Peter's (N.J.) walloped St. Francis (N.Y.) 71-48. New Mexico State's Border Conference team handed Wyoming of the Skyline group its eighth loss in 11 games, 75-59.

Veeck Still Tries To Buy Chisox

CHICAGO (AP) — Bill Veeck returns to Chicago today after a visit in Cleveland, keeping reports hot that he will buy control of the Chicago White Sox.

Veeck has an option, valid until Feb. 15, to buy the 54 per cent of Sox stock controlled by Mrs. Dorothy Comiskey Rigney.

Vice President Chuck Comiskey owns the other shares and Veeck has been trying to buy them, too. Chuck steadfastly has refused to sell.

The 32-year-old grandson of the club's founder wants to gain control himself and has made his sister a counter offer.

Ohio Collegiate Cagers Chalk Up Runaway Scores

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was a night of runaway scores in Ohio college cage action Thursday night.

The nearest thing to a close game came in the Case Tech-Oberlin clash at Oberlin when Case emerged a nine-point victor, 72-63. It was the sixth straight win for the Cleveland quintet.

Not nearly so close were the games between Heidelberg and Oberlein, Morris Harvey of West Virginia and Marietta, and Wooster and Hiram.

At Westerville, Heidelberg gained its first Ohio Conference win with an 80-65 romp over Oberlein.

At Charleston, host Morris Harvey broke a 24-24 tie with a 20-point scoring surge and went on to an easy 102-82 win over Marietta.

The biggest margin of victory went to Wooster's Scots, who buried Hiram's Terriers 90-64. Wooster now has a 7-1 record to Hiram's 1-3.

Harvard fullbacks Chris Hague and Glenn Hugie both are graduates of Clarkfield, Minn., High School.

Cop-Boxer May Be Sent Back to Seat

NEW YORK (AP) — Gene (Ace) Armstrong, unbeaten Elizabeth, N. J., middleweight, hopes to solve all Eddie Dixon's problems tonight by sending the Newark policeman back to his midnight-8 a.m. beat.

Dixon, torn between the comparative security of a $4,600 patrolman's job and the lure of a potential $20,000 a year in the prize ring, probably will make his decision after tonight's fight at Madison Square Garden.

At first, Dixon said he had decided to pound a beat rather than take his chances in the ring. The next day he changed his mind and announced, "I'm going to fight." In the meantime, he has been walking the beat, working out in his spare time.

Joseph F. Weldon, Newark police director, had informed him that the rules of the department prohibit any member from engaging in any other business. He pointed out that fighting was another business.

Advised of Dixon's decision to go through with the bout, Weldon refused comment. It is expected he will have something to say after the fight.

If the odds favoring Armstrong are right, it may be that Dixon will be happy enough to go back to the beat and forget fighting. Armstrong has a perfect 15-0 record.

Rebuilding Job Turns Out OK For Tar Heels

9th Win in 10 Starts Chalked Up as Wake Forest Stall Fails

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

What was shrugged off as a year of rebuilding looks as if it could turn out to be a good deal for Frank McGuire and his North Carolina Tar Heels.

The Tar Heels, still well fed by McGuire's talent pipeline from the North, bagged their ninth victory in 10 starts against grade A opposition Thursday night with a 44-34 defeat of Wake Forest.

Wake Forest tried a slowdown Thursday night, holding the ball four minutes at the start of the game, attempting only seven shots in the first half and generally using possession to try to match North Carolina's superior height.

The Tar Heels, tying rival North Carolina State's 4-0 record in the Atlantic Coast Conference, shook loose for a 17-11 halftime advantage and stayed comfortably ahead the rest of the way in their first experience with the slowdown.

The Tar Heels, third-ranked nationally, and 11th-ranked West Virginia were the only rated teams in action in the slim Thursday program.

West Virginia, with Jerry West whipping in eight of his 32 points in overtime, downed Penn State 89-81. It was the Mountaineers' 11th victory in 14 starts.

St. Bonaventure, one of the nation's four major unbeaten teams, kept its record intact despite sloppy play by defeating Iona (N.Y.) 68-54 in the opener of a doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Seton Hall won the other part of the doubleheader, nipping Muhlenberg 57-55.

Centenary bagged the 63rd and last title of the holiday tournament avalanche, spilling Spring Hill 71-57 in the Senior Bowl final at Mobile. Murray (Ky.) took consolation honors, 74-71 over Tennessee Tech.

Eastern Tennessee downed Morehead (Ky.) 85-76 in an Ohio Valley Conference test, Miami (Fla.) handed touring Toronto University a 97-55 defeat, and Wofford beat winless Erskine, 67-58.

Seventeen of sophomore Bill Smith's 23 points were free throws as St. Peter's (N.J.) walloped St. Francis (N.Y.) 71-48. New Mexico State's Border Conference team handed Wyoming of the Skyline group its eighth loss in 11 games, 75-59.

Veeck Still Tries To Buy Chisox

CHICAGO (AP) — Bill Veeck returns to Chicago today after a visit in Cleveland, keeping reports hot that he will buy control of the Chicago White Sox.

Veeck has an option, valid until Feb. 15, to buy the 54 per cent of Sox stock controlled by Mrs. Dorothy Comiskey Rigney.

Vice President Chuck Comiskey owns the other shares and Veeck has been trying to buy them, too. Chuck steadfastly has refused to sell.

The 32-year-old grandson of the club's founder wants to gain control himself and has made his sister a counter offer.

Ohio Collegiate Cagers Chalk Up Runaway Scores

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was a night of runaway scores in Ohio college cage action Thursday night.

The nearest thing to a close game came in the Case Tech-Oberlin clash at Oberlin when Case emerged a nine-point victor, 72-63. It was the sixth straight win for the Cleveland quintet.

Not nearly so close were the games between Heidelberg and Oberlin, Morris Harvey of West Virginia and Marietta, and Wooster and Hiram.

At Westerville, Heidelberg gained its first Ohio Conference win with an 80-65 romp over Oberlin.

At Charleston, host Morris Harvey broke a 24-24 tie with a 20-point scoring surge and went on to an easy 102-82 win over Marietta.

The biggest margin of victory went to Wooster's Scots, who buried Hiram's Terriers 90-64. Wooster now has a 7-1 record to Hiram's 1-3.

Harvard fullbacks Chris Hague and Glenn Hughe both are graduates of Clarkfield, Minn., High School.

New Purity Rules Filed By NCAA

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — NCAA member schools today received a sharp double-edged mandate from their 18-man ruling body.

The powerful NCAA Council, in moves to strengthen its enforcement program and tighten its principle of amateurism, warned, is in effect:

1. Crack down on staff members involved in serious violations of the athletic code, even to the point of firing them, if necessary.

2. Steer clear of any financial deals, direct or indirect, which would enable baseball teams or other pro sports organizations to provide athletic scholarships.

These points were emphasized in the Council's report, released Thursday. The report was read today to delegates attending the business session, climax of the week-long annual convention of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

There are two points, however, that were considered likely to cause some wrangling.

First would give the three-man eligibility committee complete authority to rule upon the eligibility of any athlete for intercollegiate athletics. At present, this power is held only by the Council.

The other proposed amendment that could cause a fuss deal with recruiting. It would prohibit institutions from providing preparatory education to prospective athletes, but would make specific exemptions for the service academies because of their stiff entrance requirements.

Whirlaway in 1942 and Citation in 1948 won the Pimlico Special in walkovers. The Calumet Farm colt-bearers scared away all competition.

At first, Dixon said he had decided to pound a beat rather than take his chances in the ring. The next day he changed his mind and announced, "I'm going to fight." In the meantime, he has been walking the beat, working out in his spare time.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Son Is Real Featherweight

DEAR ABBY: Our son is 17. He's an average student but his teachers say he could be outstanding if he had more drive. I blame his father. Dad bought him a new car and lets him charge as much gas as he wants. Dad gives him money for his pocket and never asks him what he does with it. Would you believe that this boy never earned a quarter in his life? He's never had to. He's not a bad boy but he doesn't know the value of money (he charges clothes without even asking how much they are). His Dad says he often went hungry in his own childhood. Don't you think his father is hurting him more than he's helping him? I'd like your opinion.

SONNY'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Dad's intentions are good, but he is denying his son the same challenging experiences that made a man out of him. If you want your son to keep his feet on the ground—put a little weight on his shoulders.

DEAR ABBY: I am an old man of 78, self-respecting but have known better times. My case worker is a good woman but she causes me great embarrassment. She comes out in the waiting room and in a very loud voice discusses my personal needs so that everyone can hear. I may be old and on relief, but don't you think I am entitled to a little privacy?

HUMILIATED

DEAR HUMILIATED: Most case workers are kind, sympathetic, dedicated people but unfortunately...

High School Teacher Accused in Rape Case

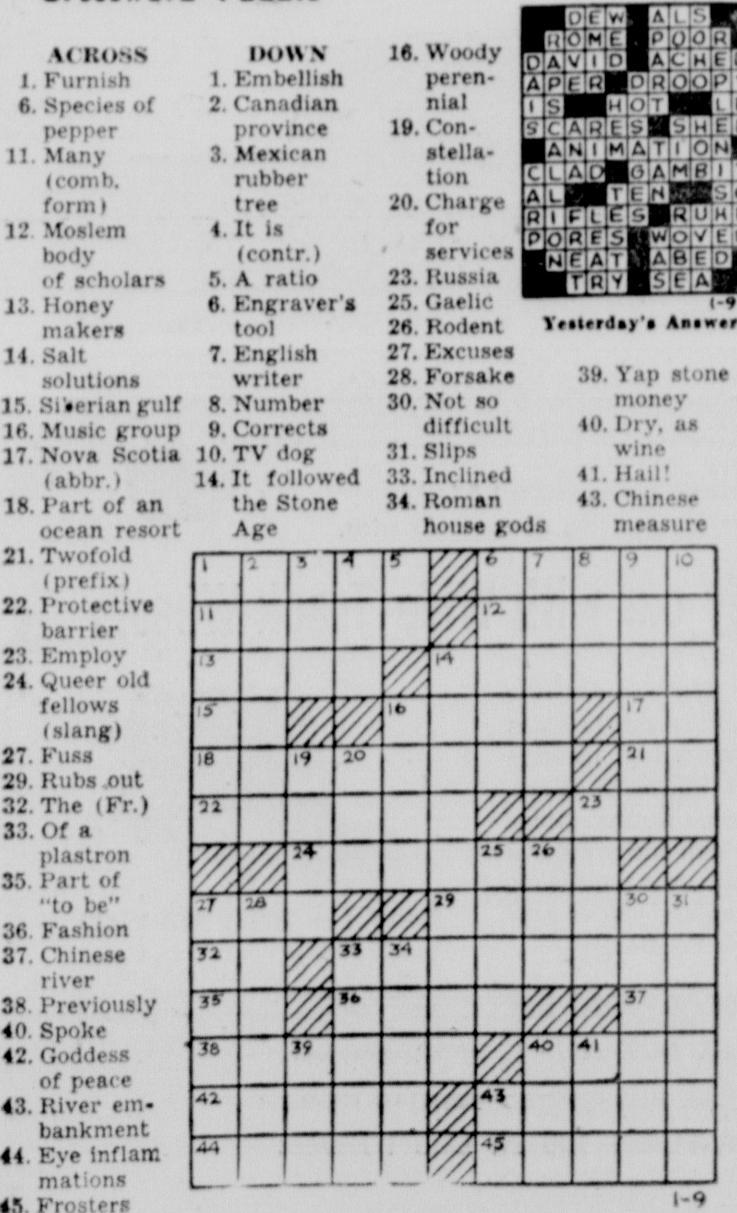

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — A Perry High School mathematics instructor was charged by Stark County sheriff's deputies Thursday with the statutory rape of a 17-year-old girl pupil. Ralph F. Lewis, 29, who is married, was arrested at his home Thursday and freed on $500 bond to appear before Municipal Judge Emmett D. Graybill today. The deputies said they found the teacher and the girl in a parked car north of here Tuesday night.

State of Union Report Made By President

Eisenhower told Congress the nation's economy is strong and healthy, and that the 1958 business recession is fading into history.

"Personal income," he said, "is at an all-time high."

Eisenhower said his military budget will advance "a sensible posture of defense," along with increased efficiency and avoidance of waste.

But, he added at another point, "The basic question facing us today is more than mere survival—the military defense of national life and territory. It is the preservation of a way of life."

"We must meet the world challenge and at the same time permit no stagnation in America," he said.

"Unless we progress, we regress."

He said spending will increase for health programs, federal aid for science and education, city redevelopment, and federal aid for highways.

He called also for continuation of the foreign aid program, but did not estimate its cost. The request is expected to go higher than the $3,700,000,000 tagged for spending this year.

Eisenhower did not list the domestic programs to be curtailed or dropped in his campaign to achieve a balanced 77-billion-dollar budget. His budget message will go to Congress Jan. 19.

His challenge to the Democratic Congress to live within that budget underscored an issue almost sure to figure in the 1960 presidential campaign.

Democratic congressmen already have challenged the announced total as unrealistic and inadequate for national security. Some Republicans have joined them in questioning the $40,900,000 reportedly included for defense.

Without mentioning the 77-billion figure today, Eisenhower hit back at contentions it isn't big enough in the light of the Soviet Union's spectacular progress in the space field.

The President called his defense plans sensibly balanced against a need for maintaining a sound economy and fighting off devastating inflation. And he cautioned against useless military expenditures which, in the name of safety, might tend to undermine the economy and, therefore, the nation's safety.

"We can afford everything we really need, but we cannot afford one cent of waste," he said.

Putting it squarely up to Congress, Eisenhower said: "The Constitution entrusts the executive with many functions, but the Congress—and the Congress alone—has the power of the purse. Ultimately upon Congress rests responsibility for determining the scope and amount of federal spending."

Eisenhower held out hope for tax relief, saying that if a balance is achieved "there is real hope that we can look forward on a time in the foreseeable future when needed tax reforms can be accomplished."

The President announced he is requesting Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson to study revision of the tax structure "to remove inequities and enhance incentives for all Americans to work, to save and to invest."

He promised to recommend such revision as soon as fiscal conditions permit.

"These prospects will be brightened if 1960 expenditures do not exceed the levels recommended," Eisenhower said.

As for the Communist threat, Eisenhower repeated that the United States is determined to stand firm, for example, against the Soviet Union's plan for ousting the Western Allies from West Berlin.

IT WAS RECOMMENDED that

City Jail have steel cots and mattresses provided for transients. It was noted that the Salvation Army had provided folding cots for prisoners but that they were of wood and canvas and would not be of long duration.

There is need of soap and towels for prisoners and transients. A new gas furnace has been provided in compliance with the provisions requesting better heat.

Recommendations included a partition be made on the Jail's third floor so as to make it possible to separate juveniles and women prisoners and that a secur-

lin. Calling world peace America's overriding goal, the President said it cannot be built through desire alone and that this country must stay militarily strong.

"Moreover," he said, "we have learned the bitter lesson that international agreements, historically considered by us as sacred, are regarded in Communist doctrine and in practice to be mere scraps of paper. The most recent proof of their disdain of international obligations, solemnly undertaken, is their announced intention to abandon their responsibilities respecting Berlin.

As a consequence, we can have no confidence in any treaty to which the Communists are a party except where such a treaty provides within itself for self-enforcing mechanisms."

In calling for a sensible posture on defense, Eisenhower said this is a time when man's power of mass destruction has reached fearful proportions.

The United States, Eisenhower said, seeks only a just peace for all.

"Yet we realize there is an uneasiness in the world because of a belief on the part of people that through arrogance, miscalculation or fear of attack, catastrophic war could be launched," the President added.

He said the new fiscal year commitments for America's armed forces, the Atomic Energy Commission and military assistance abroad exceed 47 billion dollars, about 60 per cent of the total budget. Eisenhower put the estimate in general terms.

Eisenhower took no direct note of Democratic contentions that the United States is not going far enough fast enough in the missile and general space fields.

With such things as the Soviet Union's rocket to the sun area obviously in mind, the President said: "We clearly recognize that some of the recent Soviet achievements in this particular technology are indeed brilliant."

He said this country, too, has made great strides. The 4½-ton Atlas rocket in orbit around the earth illustrates a steady advance, he said.

"New and greater developments preoccupy the major portion of the nation's scientists," he said.

Eisenhower called on the nation to remember that these advances and the development of new weapons cost terribly. He said it must be kept in mind how rapidly weapons become obsolete. "We must guard against feverish building of vast armaments to meet glibly predicted moments of so-called 'maximum peril,'" he said.

Board of Visitors Approves Four County Institutions

The annual report of the Pickaway County Board of Visitors filed with the County Probate Court on December 31 found conditions of four county institutions satisfactory.

The Board of Visitors inspected the County Jail, Municipal Jail, County Home and Children's Home. A total of four inspection trips were made by the six-member board.

The annual inspection was conducted Nov. 24, 1958. The board reported the County Jail was well kept and in good order in all respects.

Recommendations included a partition to be made on the jail's third floor so as to make it possible to separate juveniles and women prisoners and that a securi-

"As a consequence, we can have no confidence in any treaty to which the Communists are a party except where such a treaty provides within itself for self-enforcing mechanisms."

In calling for a sensible posture on defense, Eisenhower said this is a time when man's power of mass destruction has reached fearful proportions.

The United States, Eisenhower said, seeks only a just peace for all.

"Yet we realize there is an uneasiness in the world because of a belief on the part of peoples that through arrogance, miscalculation or fear of attack, catastrophic war could be launched," the President added.

He said the new fiscal year commitments for America's armed forces, the Atomic Energy Commission and military assistance abroad exceed 47 billion dollars, about 60 per cent of the total budget. Eisenhower put the estimate in general terms.

Eisenhower took no direct note of Democratic contentions that the United States is not going far enough fast enough in the missile and general space fields.

With such things as the Soviet Union's rocket to the sun area obviously in mind, the President said: "We clearly recognize that some of the recent Soviet achievements in this particular technology are indeed brilliant."

But he said this country, too, has made great strides. The 4½-ton Atlas rocket in orbit around the earth illustrates a steady advance, he said.

"New and greater developments preoccupy the major portion of the nation's scientists," he said.

Eisenhower called on the nation to remember that these advances and the development of new weapons cost terrifically. He said it must be kept in mind how rapidly weapons become obsolete. "We must guard against feverish building of vast armaments to meet glibly predicted moments of so-called 'maximum peril,'" he said.

As for the cost, he cited these as some examples:

The expense of putting intercontinental Atlas missiles into the armed forces will average 35 million dollars a missile on the firing line; seven billion dollars is being spent on the over-all missile program this fiscal year; atomic submarines cost 50 million dollars each, with some special types costing three times that much; certain bombers "cost their weight in gold."

ity room be made available for jail matron, $2,200; turnkey at jail, $2,544; jail maintenance, $3,132.43, and feeding prisoners, $10,441.45, for a total of $18,317.88.

IT WAS RECOMMENDED that City Jail have steel cots and mattresses provided for transients. It was noted that the Salvation Army had provided folding cots for prisoners but that they were of wood and canvas and would not be of long duration.

There is need of soap and towels for prisoners and transients. A new gas furnace has been provided in compliance with the provisions requesting better heat.

County Home recommendations included need for clothes hamper; need for fluorescent lighting in dining rooms; need for new gas stoves in each dining hall; floors and steps should be repaired;

Need for at least two male attendants, enabling one for day and one for night shift work, so there would be an attendant on duty at all times, and a need for cement work in a portion of the ladies' security ward.

It was noted that new gas stoves have been provided in the sitting rooms as recommended.

An inventory of the farm showed 9 milk cows, 6 steers, 1 heifer, 5 brood sows, 1 male hog, 42 fat hogs and 150 laying hens.

FIRE extinguishers on hand included 11 soda acids, 4 foam type 5 vaporizing, 14 CTC and 2 CO-2. The fire extinguishers are checked by Noble Barr once each year.

The board reported that it would appear there is still need for a deep freeze refrigerator or walk-in cooler for the Children's Home. A new gas conversion unit has been provided for the furnace.

The Home was well kept and maintained. Nine hogs were butchered during the year.

Expenditures for the four County departments up to Nov. 30, 1958 were: County Home—superintendent and matron, $3,300; employees compensation, $7,970; physician salary and fee, $178.50;

Fuel and light, $5,005.04; maintenance supplies, $7,238.90; farm supplies, $2,273.68; repairs, $4,109.56; other expense, $3,420.47; new equipment, $778.50 and permanent construction, $1,456.14, for a total of $35,730.88.

Receipts amounted to $9,106.91 for a net cost to the County of $26,623.97. There were an average of 38 persons in the Home for a cost to the County of $940.28 per capita.

CHILDREN'S HOME expenditures were salary for superintendent and matron, $3,520; employees compensation, $5,250.95; physician salary and fee, $748.90.

Fuel and light, $2,087.72; maintenance supplies, $8,384.81; farm supplies, $1,224.81; repairs, $1,053.14; other expense, $2,303.48; new equipment, $100, and permanent construction, $2,164.77, for a total of $26,835.81.

Receipts totalled $1,622.32 for a net cost to the County of $25,213.49. Average number of children in the home was 33.

Expenditures for the Child Welfare Board were employees' salary, $2,550; maintenance of children in other homes, $8,054.70; other expense (medical), $631.40; stationary and supplies, $310.58, and crippled children, $417.45, for a total of $11,964.13.

Average number of children boarded in foster homes during the 11 months was 88. Receipts amounted to $108.80. Per capita cost was $135.95.

Old Faces Appear in DeGaulle Plan

PARIS (AP) — Some familiar faces appeared in different Cabinet spots today, but the French government was still heading down the track surveyed by Charles de Gaulle.

Installed Thursday as the first president of the Fifth Republic, De Gaulle may open his seven year term with some measures of amnesty, especially for prisoners in Algeria.

Michel Debre dropped into De Gaulle's former job of premier, but the post wasn't the same any more. While De Gaulle held the job with strong emergency powers for seven months, Debre as minister of justice wrote the Fifth Republic's constitution to give more power to the president and reduce the prerogatives of the premier and the National Assembly.

One power now removed from the Assembly enabled Debre's Cabinet to go right to work. The Assembly no longer has to approve the Cabinet first and can remove it only by a membership majority, which at the same time must agree on a new Cabinet.

A strong majority in the new Parliament supports De Gaulle at present. In taking office, however, the World War II hero warned that he felt it his duty "to give France, to impose if need be, what the public good demands."

Debre appointed a 21-member Cabinet that included 17 ministers from De Gaulle's government
